About Scottish fiddle music...

Scottish fiddling, even to untrained ears, can be distinguished from other Celtic and Folk fiddling styles by its particular precision of execution and energetic delivery. The style has a very large repertoire consisting of a great variation of styles, rhythms and keys, arguably more than in related styles such as Irish fiddle music. Alan Watson of The Scottish Fiddle Society in Scotland tells us that there are over 12,000 published Scottish fiddle tunes. Scottish fiddle music is popular all over the world and has many talented exponents performing the wide variety of regional styles.

To learn more about this great music, download the free document entitled Some Perspectives on Scottish Fiddling, by visiting the Scottish Fiddle Club of Colorado at www.scotsfiddle.org.

About the Competition Sponsors...

Colorado Elks Association

www.coloradoelks.org

The Colorado Elks Association is the parent organization of the more than 30 Elks lodges in Colorado, and is a subordinate branch of The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks (BPOE) of the United States of America, all of which are non-profit charitable groups.

Elks Lodges are also social organizations, but they bring much more to their communities than social interaction and friendship. They are places where neighbors come together, families share meals, and children grow up. Elks invest in their communities through programs that help children to grow, and by honoring the service and sacrifice of our veterans.

The Elks started out as a fraternal order and social club founded in 1868 in New York, but eventually expanded into a charitable organization. The Elks National Foundation was established in 1928 and is the charitable arm of the BPOE. The Foundation, with an endowment valued at more than $400 million, has contributed $253.5 million toward Elks' charitable projects nationwide. It is one of the leading fraternal orders in the United States claiming nearly one million members. Their motto is "Elks Care, Elks Share." Membership is open to men and women of all races and religions. Members expend considerable energy, time and money on youth programs and other charitable efforts. In Colorado, a main campaign is led each year for the benefit of Laradon Hall which provides programs and services to children and adults with developmental disabilities and other special needs.

The Colorado Elks Association is proud to serve as one of the sponsors of the Colorado Fiddle Competition. Encouraging and recognizing kids who achieve in the area of music is very compatible with the Elks' mission statement, as well as being a lot of fun.

Best of luck to all of the participants!

Scottish Fiddle Club of Colorado

www.scotsfiddle.org

The Scottish Fiddle Club of Colorado was started in 2011 in order to promote the Scottish fiddle repertoire, as well as other styles of fiddling. The club is open to kids and adults of all playing levels. Thus far, several workshops have been conducted, five concerts have been presented, two television appearances have been made, and four YouTube performances have been produced. Most importantly, hundreds of pieces of music have been developed and hundreds of people have enjoyed learning about the music.

The Competition was started in 2012 as an additional offering to the general violin community. The Fiddle Club serves as the organizer and host of the event, as well as a co-sponsor.

We are very grateful to the other sponsors for their support of this event. We are also grateful to the terrific kids who participate in it and make it work!
